NOTE: Attempt all questions from Section A and B

SECTION – A

Q.1 Explain with reference to the context any three of the following extracts. (20)

a. A poor life this if, full of care,.   b. Lose something every day. Accept the fluster
We have no time to stand and stare.   Of lost door keys, the hour badly spent.
                                                 The art of losing isn't hard to master.

c. Stay, then, village for round you spin
On slow axis a world as vast
And meaningful as any poised
By great Plato's solitary mind.

d. Well, there you are! Nicolai Mihailovitch is dead, well, it's the will of God, and may his soul rest in peace... You've mourned him-and quite right. But you cannot go on weeping and mourning for ever.

e. Look here, Uncle James, do you really think that you can treat me like a boy who's just left school? Do you think four years at the front have made no difference at all?

Q.2 Attempt any TWO of the following questions (150 words each)   (20)
   a. Draw a character-sketch of Ustad Mangu (The New Constitution)
   b. Discuss the relationship of The Duchess and the Jeweller. Why do they fall to moral decadence?
   c. Discuss the play "The Bear" as a farcical comedy.

Q.3 Attempt any TWO of the following questions (150 words each)   (20)
   a. Write a critical note on the poem Leisure by Davies.
   b. Discuss the poem "Patriot Into Traitor" as a dramatic monologue.
   c. What is the theme of the poem "The Vanishing Village"?

SECTION – B

Q.4 Read the following passage carefully and answers the questions given at the end.   (25)

The Punjab University Library had a very modest beginning with the acquisition of about 2,000 volumes in 1873 at a cost of Rs. 2500. These volumes belonged to Sir Donald Frield Mcleod, Lieutenant Governor of the Punjab (1865-70) and were purchased for the Punjab University College, which developed into a university under the Punjab University Act of 1882. One of the oldest library in Pakistan, not much attention seems to have been paid to the management and augmentation of this collection till 1903 when Mr. (later Dr.) A.C. Woolner, Registrar and Principal of the Oriental College, Lahore, was appointed honorary librarian.

The present building situated at 1-Alberuni Road, Lahore, was designed by Bhai Ram Singh, Principal, Mayo School (now National College) of Arts, Lahore, and was built on a site acquired in 1910 in proximity to the Senate Hall. Its foundation-stone was laid by the Chancellor, Sir Louis Dane, on February 27, 1911, and the two-storey structure was completed in February, 1917, at a cost of Rs. 1,60,000.

A noticeable feature of the library, now having about 3,00,000 books (including more than 18,000 manuscripts), is that about one-fifth of its holdings consist of private collections of published books and/or manuscripts received by way of donations or purchased from the owners or their heirs. The Library contains a rich research collection of printed books, especially on the humanities and social sciences. It is particularly rich in old and rare editions.

Questions:
i. How did the Punjab University Library come into being?   (2)
ii. From whom were these volumes purchased?   (2)
iii. What is the contribution of Mr. (later Dr.) A.C. Woolner to the growth of the library?   (2)
iv. What designed the building of the Punjab University Library?   (2)
v. What are the more noticeable features of Library?   (2)
vi. Write a précis of the above paragraph.   (15)

Q.5 Write a dialogue between two friends discussing how corruption in the country can eradicated.   (15)
OR   Translate the following passage into English.

سائنس کو پاکستان میں پھیلانے کے لئے جن صحافیوں، مصنفین اور ناشرین نے کام کیا ہے ان کو انگلیوں پر گنا جا سکتا ہے۔ ضرورت اس بات کی ہے کہ اس سلسلے میں کام کرنے والوں کو سہولتیں دی جائیں اور ان کی حوصلہ افزائی کے لئے پر وقار طریقوں کو تلاش کیا جائے۔ اخبارات میں اور ریڈیو اور ٹیلی ویژن پر جو لوگ اچھی کار کردگی کا مظاہرہ کریں ان کو انعامات دیے جانے چاہییں۔ ایسے تاجر جو کارخانوں کے مالک ہیں ان کو بھی اس سلسلے میں آگے آنا چاہیے۔ ملک میں اگر سائنسی معاشرہ قائم ہو گا تو سائنس ترقی کرے گی۔ سائنس کی ترقی سے ملک کی ترقی وابستہ ہے۔ اسلام میں علم کے حصول پر زور دیا گیا ہے۔ اس سے مسلمان دور نہیں رہ سکتا۔
